

Friday 17th February

Live at The Bourne Valley Inn

Rock'n'Roll, Folk & Country Rock with a drop of Skiffle sums up what Big Woolley & Little Hampton are all about.

Swinging electro acoustic guitar! Great boogie-woogie bass, brilliant harmonies and a repertoire as long as Route 66.

They'll set your feet tappin' and your hands clappin' with some of the greatest songs of the 50's & 60's - Bill Haley, Elvis, Ricky Nelson, Buddy Holly, Fats Domino, Little Richard, Marty Wilde, Joe Brown, Billy Fury, The Beatles & the great Lonnie Donegan. The list like the music goes on... There are a couple of Irish tunes thrown in as well, just to keep your eyes smiling and a few funny stories to tickle your ribs.

The pedigree of the guys is as long as their song list -

Shep has been performing since 1958 (he learned the words from the original records) he has played alongside Herman's Hermits, The Dave Clark 5, Joe Brown, Alan Price & The Marmalade. He's a Folk Singer, Songwriter, Comedian and one of the most world wide travelled artists on today's entertainment scene.

Steve is a great musician, songwriter & performer. The Vapours (Think I'm Turning Japanese) The Joe Jackson Band (Is she Really Going Out with Him) He's a wizard on Guitar, Electric & double bass, lap Steel, Mandolin & he's no mean drummer either. Big Woolley & Little Hampton.

A great evening of Good Fun, Rock'n'Roll & A little bit more...
